

A Camp Like Never Before

Camp is an experience that I won't forget
Did I love every minute – yeah you bet!
As every minute passed by
I thought, "Why do we have to say goodbye?"

The first morning was very energizing
With the crimson sun greeting us good morning.
And off we started our journey towards the day
Savoring each moment that passed away.

After the field day we had going around
We spent time out on the town.
I marched around the campsite like a troupe
With my very boisterous group.

We had fun warming ourselves beside the campfire
Relishing on the barbeque as we desired.
The sporty activities served as our entertainment
While we laughed with amusement.

The next day at breakfast everyone were drearissime
For nobody wanted to go back home.
Even if I go through my greatest dolor
I will always cherish this camp like never before.
