

About Me

By: Lydia 8/1

For those who don't know me, my name is Sayantani Chakrabarti- nickname Lydia. I am fourteen years old and born on the 26'th of December, 1996. I belong to the zodiac sign of a rat and my horoscope sign is Capricorn. I don't really know what I'm going to do when I grow up, so don't ask me! I'm one of the lost and confused people whom will decide at the right time. Let it all be to destiny! But it's not chance, but choice that determines our destiny.

My hobbies are playing sports, reading books, dancing, sewing, watching movies, sleeping, and talking. I love to sleep and I am very concerned about my sleeping hours! Sleeping is very important to me! Talking? I love to talk too, and I talk quite a lot! If I need to do time pass, I just keep on talking. I have a love for movies and latest Bollywood gossip, so whenever I get time, I get the latest updates from my friends or watch a couple of good movies. I sew very rarely, and I am not the good at it either, but I still try and do it for my pleasure! My granny used to sew, so I always ask her to teach me a couple of designs and techniques. Dancing is for my joy and is like an exercise for me! I find myself happy whenever I dance and I enjoy it a lot. It's not like a passion or a strong feeling for me, but it rejuvenates me to try to learn and do something new. I just love reading books! If you give me a whole day to do anything I want, I'll read books! My favorites are mysteries, suspense, adventures, and vampires! My favorite authors are Enid Blyton, Stephenie Meyer, William Shakespeare, and the authors of Chicken Soup. Classics are anew interest to me and also a vibrant inspiration. Since I have read, Stephenie Meyer's Twilight Series, I'm in love with her and the books. Enid Blyton has been my childhood favorites and Chicken Soup has been a lesson to learn in life. I always find myself growing a little older day by day after reading Chicken Soup. In my house, the only thing you will find is books! I have maybe more than a hundred books at home!

My top most favorite sports are swimming, cricket, and badminton, and aside from that, I also enjoy playing golf, table tennis, and baseball. Even if I like to play sports, I'm not good at them, so the whole point of having sports in my hobbies is because I have fun playing them, no matter if I play well or not! My loved games are karam, twister, battleship, housie, launch along, clue, operation, monopoly, and cards. I have a whole bunch of games at home, and my friends love to come to my house for two reasons- movies and games. Under card games, my friends and I play declare, pairs, bluff, spoon, solitaire, uno, and monopoly deal the most.

About me? Well, I am a studious person and can't stand even an A- in my grade! It has to be all A's! I am not at all ambitious and I take that very positively. I am really crazy when I start to giggle and it may make you start to laugh yourself, when you see me giggle. I'm really a fun type of person and love to mingle with friends, but when I have to be serious, I get down to business! I love to be different and stand out from other people! My whole family says that there can't be piece like me in this world! I'm one in a million! I'm not proud of myself or neither over- confident, it's just that I love myself and I am the favorite of myself! I want to live life fully and cherish it till the end. I don't know what my future is, but I do know that no matter what will happen, I will never leave my parents' hands and hold it tightly close to mine. I am a family girl, a little good and a little naughty, but never bad! I love life and I know it's not fair at times, but I'll live it in my own means. Even if I will fail and get hurt, I won't cry. I'll stand up and fight until I reach my goal. The wound will stay, but the pain will heal. Overtime, I'll look back and say to myself, "This was about me, but what about you?"
