

Lady Gaga

I often refer to Lady Gaga as Lord Gaga. Obviously, I DO NOT think she's God. But I wouldn't be surprised if she was my biggest role model after my sister. She is the absolute definition of glorious. I unconditionally love her. She went through so much in her life. But still managed to be the person she is today.

When lady gaga was a little girl, she would sing along on her mini plastic tape recorder to Michael Jackson and Cyndi Lauper hits and get twirled in the air in daddy's arms to the sounds of the Rolling Stones and the Beatles. The precocious child would dance around the table at fancy upper west side restaurants using the breadsticks as a baton. And, she would innocently greet a new babysitter in nothing but her birthday suit. It's no wonder that little girl from a good Italian New York family, turned into the exhibitionist, multi-talented singer-songwriter with a flair for theatrics that she is today: Lady Gaga. Lady Gaga is obviously not what usual people call normal but I think she stands out and lives the quote "life is way too short, to blend in ."
